CATHEDRAL TOURS

Seasonal guided tours will usually take place on

Mondays at 11:00am

Fridays at 10:45am and 2:30pm. No charge but donations gratefully received.

CATHEDRAL LIBRARY

The Library is open to the public Monday and Friday afternoons 2pm - 4pm.

FRIDAY PILGRIMAGE

Every Friday from 27th July to 31st August a walking pilgrimage will leave Oriel y Parc at 10:30am for a pilgrimage walk leading to the Cathedral for Shrine Prayers at 12noon.

SACRED SPACE: CATHEDRAL LABYRINTH

Throughout the summer, we invite you to walk the Labyrinth to reflect on your path of faith, or just for fun.

Our new Labyrinth mat at the west end forms a seven-circuit mediaeval design pathway for you to walk and reflect on your spiritual journey. Step out of the normal everyday world and become aware of God's presence and guiding, as you walk the twists and turns set out before you to the centre of the Labyrinth. Return to the world taking God's love with you.

CATHEDRAL EXPLORERS

Every Tuesday and Thursday, starting 31st July, in the summer holiday, an interactive cathedral trail suitable for children aged 5 to 11 and families. Explore the Cathedral, listen to the stories, walk the Labyrinth and make your own finger labyrinth to take home with you.

The Refectory

Located in the Cloisters, the Refectory offers home-made food, made from local ingredients. We are accredited members of the Pembrokeshire Produce Scheme. Our lunch menu changes daily and we always have freshly made sandwiches and cakes on offer, plus excellent tea and coffee.

Opening Times: 10:30am to 4:30pm

Shops

There are two shops at St Davids Cathedral.

The Cathedral Shop is at the west end of the Nave and stocks a wide range of books, music and gifts.

The Domus Shop specialises in Welsh and Celtic gifts, crafts and books. It is reached by a stone bridge across the river.

Friends

The Cathedral receives no state aid and is reliant on the generosity of visitors and pilgrims. If you are interested in joining the Friends please email friends@stdavidscathedral.org.uk
