

Parish News – April 30th 2020

After the Dean leading BBC1's Mothering Sunday Worship and Radio Wales' Celebration service the following Sunday, our glorious Cathedral Community reading of the Passion Narrative on Palm Sunday, Easter Eve with the Bishop, and the Second Sunday of Easter with Canon Leigh and co on BBC1, FINALLY an 'ordinary' Sunday found its way into the Calendar!

So, the clergy team have decided that from now on, whenever they are not appearing on BBC1, one of them will video a short service with Gospel reading of the day, short address and prayers. This will be posted on Sunday morning on Facebook, Twitter and the YouTube Channel (https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCncOKz_Y5XSh4CO9aR6qEnQ). You can catch up with it then or later, with a link on the "St Davids Cathedral" website (Worship/ Special Services/ You Tube link). The Sermon will also be put up on the website Sermon page <https://stdavidscathedral.org.uk/worship/sermons>.

The Dean led the first service last Sunday, so if you missed it, it is easy to find online.

The next BBC1 services will be on May 17 and June 7 – please check the broadcast times, as the BBC often changes these at short notice!

Though members of Chapter cannot come and stay at the Canonry at the time being, many of them are going to share in leading 'Pilgrim Prayers' at noon on Fridays, also by videos which will also be posted on the Cathedral Website.

There will continue to be 'one off' special events from time to time ... watch this space!
